WEST VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE.

festerday's Proceedings in the Senate and House of Belegates. The Senate met at the usual hour (10 o'clock A. M.) yesterday, and was opened with prayer by Presiding Elder Ryan, of the M. E. Church.
Senate bill No. 126, to reimburse the heirs of James R. Houston, deceased, for services rendered as civil engineer on the Kanawha river at and near Charleston, in Kanawha county, in the years 1800 and 1801, under the direction of the Western Board of the James River and Kanawha Canal Company, cut of the surplus funds, if any, of the Kanawha Board, was passed. Senate bill No. 203, to amend and re-enact sections twenty-six, one hundred and sixty-four, two hundred and eleven, two hundred and twenty of chapter fifty of the Code, as revised, amended and re-enacted by chapter eight of the Acts of one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, was also passed. It prescribes the forms of summonses is sued by justices of the peace.

House bill No. 274, the license bill, which recently won some notoriety in connection with its provisions in regard to druggists and drummers, was then taken up and read by sections for approaches. Kanawha county, in the years 1800 and

House of Delegates House of Delegates.

The House met at half-past nine yester-lay, in accordance with the resolution dopted the day before. Mr. Holt prayed, After several minor motions, Mr. Hobbs flered a joint resolution

PROVIDING FOR THE PURCHASE OF TWO FLAGS for use on the Capitol building, which was, on motion of Mr. Grantham, referred to the Committee on Taxation and Finance. It read as follows:

Recoted by the Legislature of West Virginia, That the junitor be and is hereby authorized to purchase two flags for use on the Capitol building, to be paid for out of the Governor's contingent fund.

Another new bill was introduced, Mr. Wayt being the author and the bill being labeled "House bill No. 411, a bill to amend and re-enact section 218 of chapter S of the Acts of 1881, untitled 'An act to revive, amend and re-enact chapter 50 of the Code of West Virginia, concerning the jurisdiction, powers and duties of justices of the peace and constables and proceedings before justices."

Leave of absence was granted to Mr.

On motion of Mr. Tippett the rules were suspended and the House proceeded to the consideration of bills on a second reading, and House bill No. 300, concerning actions which was pending at adjournment, was a finished.

After several other bills had been briefly considered, House bill No. 394, amending the jury law, was taken up. Several amendments were proposed, looking to the reduction of the jury fee. It was stated that the present fee induced worthless or unreliable men to seek a place on juries. It was proposed to reduce it to $1.25, and even to a less sum. Finally Dr. Steere suggested that jurors be boarded in the county jail, and allowed 61 cents per day in addition to their board and tobacco. This had the desired effect, and the fee was left as before, a provision being inserted that no person should be summoned who solicited a place on any jury.

APTER RECESS.

The House re-convened at at half-past two, and proceeded with the pending businesa.

Nothing of interest was done at all in the afternoon, and the House wijourned at an early hour on motion of Mr. Moffett.

A MUCH MARRIED CHILD. Girl of Fifteen Twice Married Within rom the Somerset (Md.) Herald. The marriage of Miss Ella Shores to Mr.

Ioward E. White of Dames Quarter district, Somerset county, on the 5th inst., deserves more than a passing notice. Doubtless many of our readers remember Miss Shores as the thirteen-year old bride of Sidney as the thirteen-year old bride of Sidney Shores; if they do not we will refresh their memories. On the 5th of February, 1880, the Rev. Z. Bowen, united the last named parties in marriage; on the 9th of the same month Shores was arrested at his home in Dames Quarter, and Rev. Bowen was arrested in Mount Vernon, and taken before Justice A. K. Robinson, of Princes Anne, and committed to jail in default of bail. Miss shores was thirteen years old ge and the step-daughter of Sidney Shores, who was between 35 and 40 years old. In the first place the said Sidney had married his uncle's widow, and she had not been dead more than two months when he induced his wife's daughter by her first husband to marry him. The child was too young to know any better, and no blame was attached to her. In this state a penalty of $500 is imposed upon a man for taking to wife a step-daughter; and the minister, upon conviction, is fined $1,500 for performing the ceremony.

Both Shores and Bowen were indicted at specific action—and at the same time it regularly specific action—and at the same time it regularly shores and Bowen were indicted at specific action—and at the same time it regularly shores and Bowen were indicted at specific action—and at the same time it regularly shores and Bowen were indicted at specific action—and at the same time it regularly shores and Bowen were indicted at specific action—and at the same time it regularly shores and Bowen were indicted at the same time it regularly shores and Bowen were indicted at the same time it regularly shores and Bowen were indicted at the same time it regularly shores and bowen were indicted at the same time it regularly shores and Bowen were indicted at the same time it regularly shores and Bowen were indicted at the same time it regularly shores and Bowen were indicted at the same time it regularly shores and Bowen were indicted at the same time it regularly shores and Bowen were indicted at the same time it regularly shores and Bowen were indicted at the same time it regularly s

I upon him, he to stand committed until fine and costs were paid. The convict was a poor man, and if the terms of the sentence were to be carried out, it lookrd as though the groom would pass the remainder of his days in jail. Fortune favored him, however, and he escaped from jail on the 20th of May, 1880, and we have not heard from him since. Mr Bowen was tried by jury, and acquitted on the ground that he did not know the girl or the affinity existing between her and Shores. The whole affair created quite a talk at the time, and the city paper had long and inaccurate accounts of it. and costs were paid. The convict was of it.

The marriage of Sidney and Ella was set aside or annulled by the court. The respective ages of Howard E. White and Ella, his wife, are 19 and 15 years. So it will be seen that on the same day of the same month, two years after her first marriage, the said Ella was for the second time united in the holy bonds of matrimony; and that her last husband is about laif as old as the first one. > Lewis Wetzel Not a Deserter. Wheeling, February 16, 1882.

In a six column article in Monday's Ix TELLIGENCER Mr. Hu Maxwell says that Lewis Wetzel was a deserter from Lewis Lewis Wetzel was a descrier from Lewis and Clark's expedition of 1803 across the Rocky Mountains. Now this expedition did not occur until the following year, 1804. It started the 14th day of May, 1804, from the mouth of the Missouri. It consisted of 43 men, nearly all regular troops of the united States. Lewis Wetzel's name is never mentioned in connection with the expedition. I think Maxwell is wrong in casting such ignominy on his name. If Wetzel had accompanied that expedition his name would certainly have been mentioned. Whereas it is not. Mr. Patrick Wetzel had accompanied that expedition his name would certainly have been mentioned, whereas it is not. Mr. Patrick Gass. in his book or journal of Voyages and Travels during the years 1894, 1805 and 1800, has noted very particular that occurred from day to day, each day by itself, from the time they started until their return on the 23d of September, 1806, being an absence of two years, four months and ten days.

an absence of two years, now months and ten days.

Mr. Gass says that every man returned, except one, that started, and that one was Sargent Floyd. He died Monday, the 20th of August, about 3 o'clock r. x., 1804. Floyd's river perpetuates his name. Now where does Maxwell get his authority for his statements. It seems to me he is trying to praise McClelland and ridicule. Weltzel.

The well-worn cry, "We are ruined by Chinese cheap labor," threatens to be changed to, "We are ruined by Chinese cheap capital," for, besides their many ag gressions in the field of manufacture in the city, we now find the obiquitous heathen in a new role. The Redwood City Times and Gazette says: "The Chinese company and Gacelle says: "The Chinese company who are known to have bought the timber land near the Gazos Creek have already secured transportation by the stage company for 300 laborers to go down there. The first installment of these arrived on last $Sunday and more are to follow from day to day as needed. The first work they are to be put at is the construction of a transway or railroad down the Gazos Creek to the country or to Figeon Point chutz as found. country or to Pigeon Point chute, as foun most convenient. The cost of constructin this road is to be shared with the partic most convenient. The cost of constructing this road is to be shared with the parties who are about to open up the old Gazos mill property. McKinley of San Francisco, seems to be the principal in this last named enterprise, and he proposes to re-establish the old Gazos and to build a new mill up Bear Gulch, where the timber has heretolore been but little used. The mills are to manufacture shingles, lumber, and sawed railroad ties. The Chinese company is to make lies for the Stanford roads and firewood. A white man acts as Superintendent and general manager, but the principal members of the company are Chinese. The tract of land bought by them is given at different quantities, some putting it as high as 4,000 acres, but the truth seems to be that they own some 2,000 acres. Both schemes, railroad and mill, are to be pushed on with vigor."
